Mega-Bates Application by Mega-Bates, LLC

This software is designed and provided to apply stickers, bates labels, and custom marks to electronic documents. The software is not intended for any other purposes and does not purport to conform to anything other than these functions. Any illegal use or application of this software is done so at the direction and control of the User and the Provider accepts no responsibility or liability for any damages, financial, or otherwise. The term “sticker” means the generation of a box designed to be filled with any color, including white, and text that is selected by the user. The term “bates label” means the use of a numeric or alphabetic sequence that is used for identification of a page or document (item or items) that is unique for that item and used to reference that item without overlap to other items. The bates label may also contain a page counter feature to provide a full count as to the number of pages provided either in total or per document. “Custom marks” are defined as a word, string of words, or images chosen by the User to indicate information pertaining to the page or document either individually or as a whole, such as but not limited to “Attorney’s Eyes Only”, “Confidential”, or “Work Product”.

By agreeing to this User Agreement the User has the right to use this application to provide the previously mentioned functionality along with any future functionality.

User agrees to pay either a monthly or an annual subscription by either automatic or manual authorization to pay for the use of this application. This application will provide all functionality as defined above once the subscription payment has been processed and paid as outlined in the pricing terms on the website at www.Mega-Bates.com. Use of this license without payment is considered theft and User will be liable for any costs associated with recovery of unpaid charges, including legal fees. Any dispute between the User and the Provider shall be subject to litigation in Federal District Court in San Antonio, TX. This application is not freeware and is provided for a subscription rate that is available on at www.Mega-Bates.com.
